

Ján Haluška

On integration in complete vector lattices

For the Archimedean vector lattice X , the complete vector lattice Y and the positive cone L of the vector lattice of all linear regular operators $L: X \rightarrow Y$, a Riemann type construction of integral for L -valued measures is discussed. Moreover, a convergence theorem is presented for the case that Y is almost regular